

Workforce Hours and Contracts to Minority- and Women-Owned Business Enterprise (MBEs and WBEs) in JPNDC projects, 2009-2019

JPNDC PROJECT	Construction workforce			Construction firms
	Boston residents	People of color	Women	MBEs*	WBEs*
Blessed Sacrament, 2009-10: Creighton Commons (16-unit condominium project for first-time buyers) and Doña Betsaida Gutiérrez Cooperative (36-unit apartment building with 7,500 SF of commercial space) Construction cost: approx. $14.4 million / Contractor: Bilt-Rite	44%	56%	5%	35%	11%
Blessed Sacrament, 2011: Sister Virginia Mulhern House , 28 Single Room Occupancy units for formerly homeless in renovated convent Construction cost: approx. $3.6 million / Contractor: Crosswinds	77%	92%	6%	69%	6%
270 Centre, 2011: 30-unit apartment building with 5,600 SF of commercial space Construction cost: approx. $8.4 million / Contractor: Vertec	40%	45%	3%	12%	1%
JP Scattered Sites Partnership, 2014: substantial rehab of 18 units in 4 buildings Construction cost: approx. $2.6 million / Contractor: MCMI	65%	87%	3%	90%	1%
Francis Grady Apartments & Stacy Kirkpatrick House, 2016: 30 efficiency apartments for formerly homeless and 20-bed medical respite facility in renovated nursing home Construction cost: approx. $8.4 million / Contractor: Cruz Construction	52%	71%	7%	71%	7%
75 Amory Ave. Apartments, 2017: 39 affordable apartments and community room Construction cost: approx. $10.3 million / Contractor: NEI	33%	56%	5%	42%	8%
61 Heath St. Apartments, 2019: 47 affordable apartments, community room and retail Construction cost: $18.5 million / Contractor: NEI	43%	66%	10%	36%	17%
COMBINED	44%	62%	7%	38%	10%
City of Boston Goals (for comparison) https://www.boston.gov/departments/economic-development/employment-standards-boston	51%	49%	12%	N/A	N/A *percentage indicates % of construction cost awarded to these firms.